12 Plaintiffs,

13 v.

14 THE BOEING COMPANY, et al.,

15 Defendants.

16 No. C98-761P

17 ORDER DENYING
18 DEFENDANTS' MOTION IN
19 LIMINE TO EXCLUDE
20 EVIDENCE ON OFCCP
21 COMPLIANCE,
22 NEGOTIATIONS, AND
23 SETTLEMENT

24 This matter comes before the Court on Defendants' motion in limine to exclude evidence
25 on OFCCP compliance, negotiations, and settlement. (Dkt. No. 929). The Court DENIES
26 Defendants' motion.

27 Defendants seek to exclude a number of documents that relate to Boeing's compliance,
28 negotiations, and settlement with the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs (OFCCP).
29 Defendants identify 41 specific documents that they seek to exclude. Defendants argue that such 30 documents are irrelevant and unduly prejudicial. Plaintiffs maintain that portions of many of 31 these documents are relevant to their claims for promotion discrimination.

32 The Court cannot determine the context in which the documents identified by 33 Defendants' motion will be offered at trial or which portions of the documents may be offered.

34 ORDER

1 The Court also declines to exclude this entire category of documents before trial. However,
2 Plaintiffs will identify the documents they propose to use with each witness and the portion of the
3 documents they intend to use in a timely manner so that Defendants can make proper objections.

4 The clerk is directed to send copies of this order to all counsel of record.

5 Dated: December 2, 2005.
